Description

Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 49i - Ciel Rose Strong Points

(Descriptif en français disponible sur demande)

Previous owner sailed Ciel Rose with his young family from Europe to Tahti

Current owner purchased in Tahiti in 2022 and imported the boat in French Polynesia. All taxes have been paid.

75HP Yanmar diesel with very low hours (617 hours as of September 12, 2024).

Rarely available shaft drive model

Bow thruster

12V - 220V electrical with shore power

Equipped for live aboard cruising with solar, generator, watermaker, Starlink, Iridium sat phone, full range of electronics and offshore safety equipment, dinghy, outboard, ect.

4 cabins layout with forward cabin easily converted to giant master cabin by removing central partition (takes only a few minutes).

4 heads with 4 hot and cold showers, plus another h/c shower in cockpit.

Easy to handle solo or short handed with furling main and furling Genoa

New cockpit upholstery in royal blue, Bimini and sun cover

Excellent presentation and available now with everything on board to just walk on and sail away

Ciel Rose has her own mooring at Marina Taina in Tahiti, close to the International Airport. it is conveniently located and can be passed to the new owner.

Motivated owner needs to return to Australia soon. Will accept payment in USD, Euro or AUD and will assist in relation if desired.

This rarely available and beautifully presented example of the popular Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 49i is sure to impress. Designed by Philippe Briand and built by Jeanneau France, she was conceived and manufactured for serious offshore cruising and as a comfortable live-aboard. Many of these models have circumnavigated, some several times, and have proven themselves to be able to safely withstand trying offshore conditions. With all her lines ran to the cockpit and all sails furling, there is no need to deal with reefing in sudden wind change or venture on deck.

With its two wheels, bow thruster and reliable Yanmar Diesel engine she is easy to manoeuvre in and out of marina
